DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 05/19/2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 3, and 7-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Showers (U.S. 5,226,864). Referring to claim 1, Showers discloses an assembly comprising a multi-level structure comprising a frame defined by permanent upright members (11) and at least one removable upright member disposed inside the frame and removable from the playset without disassembling the frame, and a plurality of steps configured to allow a child to climb from a first level to a second level (12), the steps comprising a platform sized to accommodate the entire body of a child, the steps mounted within the multi-level structure so that the steps are capable of being removed without damaging the structure. Referring to claim 3, Showers teaches a plurality of removable upright members attached to the steps. Referring to claim 7, Showers discloses the step having four corners with upright members adjacent the corners. Referring to claim 8-9, as broadly interpreted Showers discloses climbing rungs extending between adjacent members (23) with the rungs defining a pair of ladders. Referring to claim 10, Showers discloses the first level is at ground level. Referring to claim 11, Showers discloses a device wherein the removal of the steps leaves an open play area. Referring to claim 12, Showers discloses are mounted so that they may be removed at any time during the lifetime of the playset as best understood.

4. Claims 1, and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Poo (U.S. 4,941,658). Referring to claim 1, Poo discloses a multi-level structure including a frame defined by permanent upright members (1), and at least one removable upright member (31) disposed inside the frame and removable from the playset without disassembling the frame, and a plurality of steps configured to allow a child to climb from a first level of the structure to the second level of the structure, the second level comprising a deck (P), the steps mounted within the structure so that they are removable. Referring to claim 3, Poo discloses a plurality of upright members, and steps (31) attached to the upright members. Referring to claim 4, Poo discloses steps removably attached to the removable upright members. Referring to claim 5, note that the steps are horizontally mounted members configured to receive an upper portion of the upright members.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

6. Claims 6 and 13-17 are are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Poo in view of Durlacher (U.S. 2,954,977). Referring to claim 6, Poo discloses the claimed invention, but fails to teach the upper portion of the removable upright members being notched in order to receive the horizontal members. Durlacher teaches in an analogous device that it is desirable to provide notches in members to better secure horizontal members that are attached, thereby inhibiting movement. In view of the teachings of Durlacher it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to provide the upright members of Poo with notches as taught by Durlacher in order to better secure the horizontal members and upright members and to prevent unwanted movement.

Referring to claims 13-17, the modified Poo device discloses the claimed structural limitations. Furthermore, Poo also discloses the method steps of providing (inherently) the structure and further discusses removably installing the structure, including steps for assembly and disassembly. The specific method steps would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art as they entail standard steps that would necessarily be performed when assembly and disassembling the device.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 3764

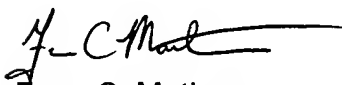

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 3-17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
